

Information and statistics – PeaceHealth and Southwest Washington Health System

Points of Similarity	PeaceHealth	Southwest Washington Health System
Year Founded	1891; St. Joseph’s Hospital, Fairhaven, W	1858; St. Joseph’s Hospital, Vancouver, WA
Founder	Mother Francis Clare Sisters of St. Joseph of Peace	Mother Joseph Sisters of Providence
Mission	We carry on the healing mission of Jesus Christ by promoting personal and community health, relieving pain and suffering, and treating each person in a loving and caring way.	As a leader in the provision of health services for our entire community, we emphasize clinical and service quality, promote accessible and affordable care and work with others to improve health status.
Core Values	Respect Stewardship Collaboration Social Justice	Respect Integrity Teamwork Compassion Safety Excellence
Vision	Every PeaceHealth patient will receive safe, evidence-based, compassionate care; every time, every touch	Exceptional medicine. Extraordinary care. Every Person
IRS Tax Status	501(c)3 not-for-profit	501(c)3 not-for-profit
Strategic Planning Model	Five Pillars: Mission, Culture and People Safe & Clinically Effective Care Clinician Partnership & Planned Care Growth and Innovation High Value	Five Pillars: People Quality Service Growth Finance

(more on back)

Information and statistics – PeaceHealth and Southwest Washington Health System

(continued from other side)

Statistics	PeaceHealth (Hospitals) (PeaceHealth FY2009)	Southwest Washington Health System (Medical Center statistics) (SWHS FY2009)
Inpatient Admissions	53,705	25,126*
Emergency Visits	214,989	114,031
Employees	11,704	3,500
Average Daily Census	668	238
Beds (Licensed)	1,100	442
Employed Physicians	367	97
Net Patient Revenue	$1,313,859,000	$484,674,000

PeaceHealth hospitals, clinic and laboratory locations:

- Ketchikan, Alaska
- Bellingham, Washington
- Longview, Washington
- Eugene, Springfield, Oregon
- Cottage Grove, Oregon
- Florence, Oregon
- Portland, Oregon

These comparisons are for differing fiscal year periods.
PeaceHealth's FY is July-June and Southwest January-December (unaudited).

*includes newborns

March 2010 version